Two Stepbrothers Captured Here In Stolen Car After Police Chase

Held On Federal Charges; 12-Year-Old Girl With Them

Two Springfield, Ohio, stepbrothers today were held under federal charges of interstate transportation of a stolen motor vehicle after a chase by Illinois State Police which resulted in their capture in Harrisburg. With them was a 12-year-old girl.

Arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Harry L. McCabe here were James Elwyn McIntyre, 26, and George Edward McIntyre, 19, upon complaint of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

They and the girl were in a 1956 Packard the men admitted stealing from a Springfield, Ohio, used car lot Sunday night, when caught after a chase. State Police Sgt. C. L. Rockwell spotted the car at the Routes 45-142 intersection south of Eldorado after hearing a message to be on the lookout for the car. He gave chase toward Harrisburg with the cars going as fast as 115 miles per hour.

Auto Stopped Here

Rockwell radioed State Trooper Adolph Sweat, who was at the Routes 45-13 intersection in Harrisburg, about the car coming his way and Sweat, with help from State Trooper Michael Taggart, who was off duty and was near by in civilian clothes, stopped the

2. It was agreed that the Sunrise Easter service will be held at 6 a. m. on April 6 at the Methodist church. The Rev. Glen Daugherty, the Rev. E. C. Fischer and the Rev. Ernie Tison will be responsible for the service;
3. It was agreed that the annual vacation Bible school parade will be held June 7 at 10 a. m. The Rev. Wm. B. Fuson and the Rev. E. C. Fischer will be in charge.
4. The Rev. Ernest Ammon was appointed to arrange for a speaker and a banquet for the ministers and their families.
5. After some discussion about the rubber plant that is considering this area as a possible site, it was reported from reliable people that Harrisburg's being dry or wet had not been discussed with the company at any time. It was suggested by those present that Harrisburg has a slight advantage since liquor is not sold at retail and there are no open saloons.

Mack Quits Under Fire

Probe Chairman Says Real Reason For Pressure Tactics Not Told

WASHINGTON (UP) — Chairman Oren Harris charged today that his House subcommittee has not been told the real reason behind "pressure tactics" used on Richard A. Mack, who quit under fire as federal communications commissioner.

The Arkansas Democrat told George T. Baker, president of National Airlines, that he had not given a "reasonable explanation" for trying to hire Thurman A. Whiteside, Mack's close friend and financial angel, to represent the airlines in a TV case before the FCC.

Baker, saying he could not "con done" Mack's activities, told Harris that some witnesses called by the subcommittee may have lied.

"What did Whiteside do?" Harris demanded.

"We can't be responsible for his actions," Baker replied.

Did No Wrong: Baker

The airline executive acknowledged that he tried to hire Whiteside as an attorney "personally known and favorably to Mr. Mack" to represent the airline in its bid for the contested Miami Channel 10.

But he emphasized that Whiteside refused to accept a fee and therefore he did not consider Whiteside to have been hired.

Harris noted that when Baker tried to hire Whiteside all the legal work had been done on the TV application and it was merely awaiting an FCC decision.

Baker protested that he and his company had done no wrong.

"We don't operate under the table," he said. "Don't try to put

Water, Sewer Workers Get Wage Increase

Members of the Harrisburg Water Board and employees of the water and sewer departments have reached an agreement on a wage increase.

The agreement is for a five percent hourly increase for sewer plant employees and a two and a half cent hourly increase for the water plant employees.

Wages for the sewer plant workers are less than the other department and the latest increase is a step toward equaling the two wage rates. The superintendent and two office workers are included in the increase for the water plant employees.

The contract with the employees expired Dec. 31, 1957 and the new two-year agreement is unchanged except for the hourly wage rate.

Death Takes Rev. Henry Estes, 80

Rev. Henry Estes, 80, resident of 522 West Walnut street, Harrisburg, died in the Lightner hospital at 6 a. m. today. He is survived by his wife, Viola, and three children: Mrs. Ethel Wagner, Shawneetown, Preston Estes, Gary, Ind., and Everett Estes, Terre Haute, Ind. His sister, Mrs. Linda Robinson, Hicktown, also survives.

The body is in the care of the Turner funeral home in Harrisburg where it will lie in state. Funeral plans have not been completed.

Complete coverage is necessary this year as the county quota is $12,539. The local chapter retains 54.98 per cent of the money collected and the county's share of the National Red Cross needs is 45.2 per cent of the total collected.

In 1957 $5,585.42 was collected, which was about 50 per cent of the amount needed. Everyone is encouraged to increase his contribution this year because last year the United States was hit by 295 natural disasters and 149 of these struck in the Midwest. One home was destroyed in Saline county by a tornado, which the National Red Cross is rebuilding at a cost of $1700.

The goal is a Red Cross sticker in every home. The solicitor leaves a sticker for every donation regardless of the amount.

Congress Should Deal with Disability Issue, Knowland Says

White House Gives Details of Pact by Eisenhower, Nixon

WASHINGTON (UP) — Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland said today that Congress should deal with the question of presidential disability despite the Eisenhower-Nixon agreement covering the problem.

The California legislator made the statement after a meeting of Republican congressional leaders with President Eisenhower this morning.

The White House late Monday announced details of an agreement between President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon providing that Nixon take over as "acting president" if the President becomes disabled. But the White House said the administration still wants congressional action on the issue.

Knowland said he does not think announcement of the Eisenhower-Nixon agreement will make Congress more complacent about the problem. Actually, he said, he thinks it should improve chances for congressional action.

"It certainly would not lessen the chances," Knowland said. "I believe that action should be taken."

Knowland said he thinks Congress should initiate a constitutional amendment dealing with presidential disability.

James Bowman, 91, Retired Miner Of Muddy Dies

James Bowman, 91, retired coal miner of Muddy, died at 10 p. m. Monday in the Harrisburg hospital. The body will lie in state at the funeral home until the funeral at 2 p. m. Leo Grossman, of the Muddy Baptist church will officiate and burial will be in the Sunset Hill cemetery.

Their six surviving children are as follows: Doad Bowman and Elmer Bowman, Muddy; Frank Bowman Eldorado; James Bowman, Gary, Ind.; Mrs. Lora Shires, Miami, Fla. and Mrs. Evelyn Foster, Muddy. He is also survived by four sisters: Mrs. Nora Kincaid, Eldorado; Mrs. Mittie Johnson, Lyons; Mrs. Hallie Shires and Mrs. Viola Smith, Wason. There are 16 grandchildren and 16 great grandchildren surviving.

Says U.S. Wants Conference to Resolve Issues

Brusque Comments Directed at Soviet Notes to Allies

WASHINGTON (UP) — Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today rejected as unacceptable Soviet proposals for a foreign ministers' meeting as a prelude to a summit conference.

Dulles bluntly told a news conference that the United States rejects moves which would make this country any party to a fraud, a hoax, a show or a spectacle at a summit conference between East and West.

Dulles said there is a great danger in all efforts to substitute fiction for reality in dealing with outstanding East-West problems.

He suggested that the Soviets may want to promote the fiction, as he put it, that the East-West cold war has come to an end.

Not Acceptable Now

Dulles said the United States wants meetings with the Soviet Union which would resolve significant issues in a manner to ease East-West tensions and promote world peace. But he said this government would not attend a summit conference which would increase tensions.

Dulles' brusque comments were directed at Moscow's proposal to hold a foreign ministers' conference in April to set the time, place and agenda for a summit conference. The Soviet proposal was contained in notes to the United States, Britain, France, and other countries.

The Russians said at the same time that an advance agreement should be reached on a summit agenda based only on subjects "all participants in the conference are ready to discuss." They then ruled out a discussion of Germany and the status of Eastern European satellites—two subjects the United States wants to talk about.

Dulles said the conditions laid down by the Soviets in their most recent move are not acceptable to the United States as they now stand. Perhaps some progress can be made in working the two sides closer together.

As things stand now, Dulles said, it does not seem a summit meeting could usefully be held unless such further steps are taken to bring the two sides closer together.

Rule Courts Have Last Word

Supreme Court Reverses Army, Grants Honorable Discharges

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Supreme Court has put the Army on notice for the first time today that federal courts have the last word on the kind of discharge a soldier gets.

The high court ruled Monday that discharges given by the armed services are subject to judicial review of their legality. The decision came in an opinion ordering the Army to change to "honorable" the discharges given two New York ex-servicemen.

The case was among a wide range of actions by the court following a four-week recess.

The justices refused to hear another appeal against school desegregation by Prince Edward County, Virginia, one of the original defendants in the historic segregation case of 1954.

Under a ruling by the 5th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals, now final, a definite start toward desegregation of the country schools must be ordered by Federal District Judge Sterling M. Hutcheson in Richmond.

White residents have said they will close the schools before they will allow mixed classes.

The court also ruled against three corporations which sought immunity from Michigan taxes on the basis of their status as defense contractors for the federal government. Many states stand to gain millions of tax dollars as a result of the decision.

In another case the court ruled 6-3 that a state may not regulate transportation rates on commodities owned and shipped by the federal government within the state's borders. A California intrastate commerce law was declared unconstitutional.

The decision on military discharges came on appeals by John Henry Harmon III of the Bronx and Howard D. Abramowitz of Brooklyn. They had received less-than-honorable discharges—Abramowitz on the allegation that he was a former Communist and Harmon because of alleged Communist associations before induction.

The Justice Department had conceded that the Army acted illegally in basing the discharges on pre-induction activities. But it said in any event the court had no power to correct the situation.

Monday's unsigned opinion not only gave this jurisdiction to federal courts but said flatly that "the type of discharge to be issued is to be determined solely by the soldier's military record in the Army."

Justice Tom C. Clark dissented on the ground that the military should not be barred from conducting a security program "commonly accepted by civilian government agencies."

America—the Replacement Market

You hear a lot of things said about the wonders of the great American market. It's so big, so expansive, so free of the restrictive barriers to the flow of goods and men.

Statistics are hardly necessary to substantiate the most glowing appraisal of America as a place to do business in. But there's one aspect of it that perhaps many of us don't think of often.

The United States is a great trading area not merely because it is big and free and growing.
It is that because it is a place where people by the same things again and again.

In numerous parts of the earth few people if any can afford to buy an automobile at all. In other spots, it's like buying a house.
Once you've got one, that's it. But here, with 65 million motor vehicles on the road, we count it a poor year when we don't sell more than five million new cars.

It's the same with refrigerators, radios, TV sets, furniture, and a host of other things. Things aren't normal unless we keep coming back for new models.

What with population booming and resources still generally plentiful, the American market probably will always be big and growing. But it might take quite a jolt if people suddenly decided to let the old model do for a decade or so.

WASHINGTON — Veteran GOP
Representative Clarence Brown of Ohio was joshing Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas about the $100,- 000 Texas oil dinner for ex-Speaker Joe Martin.

"Everything would have been all right if Jack Porter, one of the rich oil men down there, hadn't written that letter praising him for his support of the natural gas bill," said Brown. "Sam, it wouldn't surprise me if you yourself ghosted that letter to embarrass us Republicans."

Rayburn, who has done much for all the people but has a weak spot for the gas bill, stared dubitously at Brown for a moment, then broke into a grin:

"You know, Clarence," he said,
"it hurts my state pride to think that the letter came from Tex-

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE MUSICIAN

It took the Polish embassy to let the nation's capital know about one of America's budding young musicians — Sidney Harth, Louisville Ky., violinist.

At the embassy the other evening, Mrs. Alben Barkley, widow of the late great vice president, joined a group of ambassadors and distinguished guests to listen to young Harth, a member of the Louisville Symphony, who went to Poland last summer and managed to place second in the annual Polish violin competition.

Members of the Louisville Symphony Orchestra had enough confidence in Harth's ability to send him to Poland. There he had to compete against some of the most noted young musicians of England, France, Germany, Italy, Russia, and the Iron Curtain countries. It was a people-to-people gesture which should be emulated in this country.

As Harth played in the Polish embassy, the portrait of the late Ignace Paderewski, first president of the Polish Republic and one of the most noted pianists of modern times, looked down from over the piano.

Young Harth, finishing his concert, caught a late plane for Louisville to rehearse with his orchestra. He was acclaimed in Europe, Louisville, and Washington.

FOES AND ENEMIES

At the big bipartisan foreign aid luncheon, Republican leaders were jovial with the ex-President whom they used to pillory and who had castigated them politically only two days before. It was a political scene you don't witness in many countries.

After Senator Knowland of California and Sen. Alex Wiley of Wisconsin, Republicans, posed with Harry Truman and ex-Secretary of State Acheson, Wiley remarked privately: "I've just had my picture taken with Acheson and Harry Truman. I guess we might all just as well go to hell together."

Mr. Truman, speaking publicly later, said: "I've just had my picture taken with Republican leaders and Democratic leaders.
If that doesn't ruin them politically they're bombproof."

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Last week Senator Gore of Tennessee bet $50 that Sen. Harry Byrd of Virginia would run for the Senate despite his earlier refusal. Gore won. Reason for his bet was tremendous big-business pressure on Byrd to keep him on the Senate Finance Committee which helps write the tax laws of the nation. Business didn't want Bible-quoting Sen. Bob Kerr of Oklahoma to head up this key committee. . . . Some of the Floridians who financed handsome George Smathers in his double-cross race against his old friend ex-Sen. Claude Pepper, are now ready to put money on Pepper to run for the Senate again. . . .
Sen. Wayne Morse's resolution for a full Senate probe of the regulatory agencies has been referred to the committee headed by Senator Magnuson of Washington, who two years ago was given $250,000 to investigate the FCC. "Maggie" spent the money, but didn't find even one of the glaring scandals now hitting the headlines. . . . for years the big network execs have been bragging that Congress would never investigate them and the FCC. Magnuson, a fine senator 99 per cent of the time, has a weak spot re TV. He owns part of a station in Seattle and CBS was very quick to switch to Maggie's station once it got a TV license. . . . Dean Acheson, introducing Harry Truman at the bipartisan foreign aid dinner, said:

"He annoys people whom we like to annoy." . . . Introducing his wife, the ex-secretary of state said: "She has borne more trouble than anyone I know—my wife, Mrs. Dean Acheson. (Before Acheson made his famous
"I will not turn my back on Alger Hiss" statement, he stayed up most of the night discussing with his wife whether he should defend an old friend.)

DIPLOMATIC PIPELINE

Raymond Hare, the American ambassador to Egypt, has warned that the Egyptian-Syrian union has the support of the Arab people, whereas the new Iraqi-Jordan merger does not. The latter was put across by kings, not the people. . . . U. S. Envoy Amory Houghton, the big Corning Glass manufacturer, has brushed up on his French and has become an effective ambassador. It was mainly because of Houghton's persuasiveness that the French agreed to let the U. S. A. medi-ate with Tunisia. Meeting three separate times with Premier Gaillard, Houghton finally convinced him it was the only way to avert real fighting at Bizerte.

Generally speaking, men are three times more susceptible to heart stroke than are women.

Matter of FACT

In 1846, at the age of 27, Elias Howe built and patented the first model of a sewing machine. To prove that his machine was practical, Howe staged a contest with five of the best seamstresses available.
His machine proved to be several times faster than hand sewing, and the seams produced were better.

Liberty Home Bureau Meets With Mrs. Jean Dudley

The Liberty Home Bureau unit met in the home of Jean Dudley recently. Roll call was answered with guesses about who had made the valentines brought to the meeting. The major lesson "Beef in Our Meals," was presented by Willie Hendren and Lela Gibbs. Each had prepared a beef dish and served it to the members.

Following the business meeting refreshments were served and those present were: Helen Roberts, Naomi Dudley, Mattie Cummins, Natalie Wright, Barbara Rice, Lela Gibbs, Ruby Harding, Willie Hendren, Wanda Waite and the hostess.

Spring Valley Church Group Meets With Phyllis Fulkerson

The Future Leaders of Christ of the Spring Valley Social Brethren church met in the home of Phyllis Fulkerson, Feb. 22. The meeting opened with a hymn and Mrs. Peggy Brouillette teacher, led in prayer. Visitors Letha, Lovetta and Loretta Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Duncan and Linda and Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Fulkerson, were welcomed. LaDonna Duncan, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting and old and new business was transacted. Jimmy Endicott read the devotion from Psalms 24. LaDonna Duncan closed the meeting with prayer.

During the social hour the group played truth or consequences and refreshments were served.

The next meeting will be held in the home of James and Lenora Endicott.

Harrisburg Residents Attend Alton High School Play

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Davenport, Mrs. Clarence Bosket and Miss Lolo Eddy attended the play, "Night of January 16," in the Alton high school Saturday evening. They left Harrisburg Saturday to visit in Alton with friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Davenport were there to see their son, Clifford Davenport teacher of dramatic art in the school who directed and whose pupils produced it. Mrs. Bosket was with her daughter, Miss Dorcetha Bosket, librarian of the high school, and Miss Eddy visited Julian Williamson, former HTHS teacher, now teaching at Alton high school.

The same play was given in the high school at Harrisburg several years ago and starred Tom Davenport, Fred Hood, Lolita Nelsons and JoAnne Unsell Haupt.

The Davenports, Mrs. Bosket and Miss Eddy returned to Harrisburg Sunday evening.

John W. Towle is improving at Barnes hospital from the heart attack he suffered about two weeks ago. He is still unable to see visitors, although his son, Cline, was allowed to see him for a few minutes Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. John Belt took Cline to St. Louis for the visit Saturday, the first time since his illness that the doctors would allow Mr. Towle to be visited by anyone, even his son.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Unsell were pleasantly surprised Sunday evening when their daughter, Mrs. Don Houpt, and her children, Carolyn, Diane and Donald came to visit for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Unsell met them in Carbonale where they had arrived by train, and drove them to Harrisburg.

Business Briefs

By United Press

The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill to increase the lending authority of the Export Import Bank by two billion dollars. As of Dec. 31, the bank had committed all but $533,700,000 of its loan authority, although only $2,984,500,000 had been actually disbursed in loans.

South Penn Oil Co. announced a 25-cent a barrel reduction in prices of Pennsylvania grade crude oil used chiefly in lubricants. It was the second price cut in the past year for this type of crude.

Construction contracts awarded in January for all types of building fell 10 per cent below January, 1957, according to F. W. Dodge Corp. Nearly every major kind of construction was affected.

The Small Business Administration approved 289 business loans for $13,820,000 during January, an increase in value of 17 per cent compared with the same month last year. The SBA also approved 81 disaster loans worth $630,000 during the first month of 1958.

Approximately $1,720,000,000 worth of merchandise is sold through coin vending machines every year.

Smokey Says:

McClellan Criticizes Kohler for Ordering Photos at Hearing

WASHINGTON (UP)—Chairman John J. McClellan Monday criticized the Kohler Co. for hiring a photographer to take pictures at a Senate Rackets Committee hearing.

McClellan accused the firm of hiring the photographer to take pictures that might be used to "smear" members and employees of the committee.

Company officials denied any intention to "smear."

McClellan aired the issue when his committee resumed its investigation of the 4-year-old strike against Kohler by the United Auto Workers Union. He called it "pretty low, pretty low" and said there was a "bad odor" about the arrangement.

George C. Gallati, an official of the Wisconsin firm, testified that he had arranged with the United Press Newspictures Commercial Photographic Division to take special photos at the hearing. He conceded under questioning that he wanted any pictures of committee members and staff in the act of conferring with Joseph L. Rauh Jr., UAW attorney and former head of Americans for Democratic Action.

U.P. Newspictures has a Commercial Photographic Division which operates on the same basis as other commercial photographic studios. This service is available to corporations, organizations and individuals.

Gallati requested the services of the Commercial Photographic Division last Friday. The arrangement was entered into only after the Commercial Photographic Division obtained assurances from Gallati that any photos would be solely for the firm's private records and would not be for public use or publication of any kind. Gallati gave further assurances that there would be no embarrassment to the Commercial Photographic Division.

Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy said the matter was "no reflection on the United Press."

CIPS Compiles List of Industrial Prospects for Area

Copies of the first in a series of industrial prospect lists were delivered this week to mayors and chambers of commerce and similar organizations in communities served by Central Illinois Public Service Co.

The first list, including the names and addresses of almost 1,000 firms engaged in or supplying the electronics and nucleonics industries, offers the communities the opportunity to follow up CIPS' initial 1958 area development advertisement in Electronics and Nucleonics magazines, and Wall Street Journal.

A second ad has been scheduled by CIPS for Wall Street Journal, in April; Appliance Manufacturer, in May; and Machinery, in June. A third ad will appear in Wall Street Journal in September, and in Chemical Week in October, and Modern Plastics, in November.

Lists of industries engaged in or serving fields in which the specialized publications circulate will be provided local communities by CIPS so they may tie in their own industrial promotion efforts.

The lists are in kit form so helpful suggestions or case histories of what other communities have done to attract industry may be included. List No. 1 includes important points to remember in preparing a factual presentation of a community's advantages to industry, a check list of things industry seeks, an offer to supply reprints of the CIPS' first 1958 ad and information on how to get additional names and addresses of industries in the electronics and nucleonics fields.

Mistaken Identity

LONDON — John Morrison, 37, of Holmfild Close, Yorkshire, was held by police today on charges he tried to strangle his seven-year-old daughter with a stocking. A police witness told the court that when arrested Morrison said "I thought it was my wife."

THE SCOREBOARD

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (NEA) — For 25 years, Cardinal training camps were loaded with good young players. Each year there was an Enos Slaughter or a Whitey Kuroski ready to play.

But all this is gone now. Out side of a pitcher or two, Curtis Flood, 20-year-old Negro third baseman-outfielder, is the only bright prospect here at the Red birds' Al Lang Field. And young Flood, who is on the small side and batted only 299 for Savannah of the Sally League last season, was obtained from the Reds in the Willard Schmidt trade. The comeback for the Cardinals is hard to believe.

"THE BUSCH INTERESTS want to conduct a real dignified operation," explained Frank Lane, who quit to become general manager of the Indians. "You can't spend all your working hours writing reports and be out in the field looking for ballplayers at the same time."

"When the Cards had it, there would be scouts every place and an Eddie Dyer or Billy Southworth managing in the minors. Now they want bookkeepers."

Once again the Red Birds, second by eight lengths last year, are banking on old pros—the great Stan Musial, 37; Alvin Dark, 33, and Del Ennis, 33.

In Branch Rickey's time, St. Louis peddled stars and only had to reach into its far-flung chain to come up with a Pepper Martin or a Musial. The Cardinals last season purchased 33-year-old Irv Noren and his two bad knees from Kansas City. Another, Joe Taylor, a 32-year-old outfielder, came with Flood from the Redlegs.

THE OUTFIT CREAKS with age all over. The 35-year-old left hand pitcher, Bob Kuzava and Morris Martin, were acquired from Triple A. The front office took a chance on Karl Spooner's shoulder and drafted the southpaw from Macon.

They finally have Alvin Dark moving over to third base and this time he'll be making room for Eddie Kasko at shortstop.

There is still concern about the shoulder injury Musial suffered last August. It kept him out for three weeks, more than he missed in 14 previous seasons. Every body will breathe easier when The Man starts taking his full cut again. Musial pulled muscles in his left shoulder and a piece of bone came with one of them when he tried to slap a high curve ball into right field. The pain was still excruciating. But he returned to win his seventh batting championship with 16 hits in 31 times at bat in his last 10 games.

"It hurt too badly to take a full swing, so I just concentrated on meeting the ball and punching it into left field," he explains.

Musial says the shoulder feels fine now, but he'll feel better after further trials prove pain is gone for good.

This is even more important to Musial than it is to the club, for Stan the Man expects to make

Heart Fund Drive Passes Midway Mark

The Heart Fund drive in Harrisburg is past the midway mark and the response to letters sent out to residents asking for contribution shows the great concern there is to help win the battle against diseases of the heart.

Heart fund workers, in a statement, said, "Everyone from the President of the United States to John Q. Public, himself is backing the Heart Fund this year. This is a heartening indication that people have recognized the seriousness of the heart disease problem in our community, as well as in the nation and are behind the Illinois Heart Association, an affiliate of the American Heart Association, in its effort to combat these diseases."

It is being sponsored here by the American Legion Auxiliary.

President Eisenhower said that the work of the Association in advancing research, education and community service has shown "What can be accomplished when men and women are given the opportunity to participate freely in a worthy cause."

Contributions can be given to Mrs. J. Frank Parker, treasurer, or any member of the Legion Auxiliary.

Venezuela exports more petroleum than any other nation and produces about two million barrels of oil a day.

No undressing. It takes but a moment.

Are you interested in playing safe with your own health and, at the same time, in helping rid this community of tuberculosis?

No one can be sure he does not have tuberculosis. The disease gives no warning when it first strikes. Yet, the damage inflicted to a person's lungs by TB germs can be revealed while still in an early stage by means of a chest X-ray.

The first, miniature films taken among the apparently healthy during our X-ray program constitutes a "screening process." The majority of those X-rayed receive reports of clear films indicating healthy lungs. A comparatively few are called back for second X-rays to permit more detailed study. Frequently the sealed letter requesting that a person return for his second X-ray means merely that there was some technical imperfection in the first film. Or the shadows in a first film can also be the result of some minor trouble in the region of the chest.

Of course, there are bound to be some whose second X-rays show signs of disease. Further tests have to be given before a diagnosis of active tuberculosis is made. But even in these cases there is a silver lining. When TB is detected in an apparently healthy person it is usually in an early stage. The majority of cases which turn up will be in an early, easily curable stage.

An open enemy can be attacked and defeated. If we get TB out in the open by finding all the unknown cases, we can defeat it. We can all help to make this community a safe place for ourselves, our families, and our neighbors. We can have our chests X-rayed.

If you should miss your X-ray when the Mobile unit visits your county, it can be obtained at the Shawneetown fire station on March 12-15 and at the Carmi municipal building on March 18-22.

Russia Campaigns Against Drinking

MOSCOW (AP) — The government organ Izvestia printed a seven-column weekend blast against the demon vodka, which is becoming Russia's "Public enemy No. 1."

The article, signed by a Dr. Lidia Bogdanovich, proposed the formation of a Soviet "Alcoholics Anonymous" to "conduct propaganda for the people's hygiene."

The Izvestia piece was the latest development in a campaign that began Jan. 2, when the government increased the price of wines and liquor 30 per cent to discourage excessive drinking by "a small segment of the population."

Party secretary N. S. Khrushchev followed up with a speech in Minsk three weeks later, warning that moonshiners and those "who get people drunk" will be punished.

Dr. Bogdanovich said 70 per cent of Russia's crimes and 50 per cent of its accidents are due to drunkenness.

Couple Killed at Train Crossing In Johnston City

JOHNSTON CITY, Ill. (AP)—Ralph Francisco and his wife, Janice, an expectant mother, were killed today when their car was struck by a Chicago and Eastern Illinois freight train at a crossing here.

The couple, believed to be in their 30s, lived here. Francisco was a post office employee.

The southbound freight pushed the car about 250 feet down the track, authorities said.

Chrysler, UAW Agree on New Work Schedules

DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp. and the United Auto Workers Monday announced an understanding that will put employees on a 40-hour week and lay off unneeded workers so they can draw unemployment benefits.

The company and the union also agreed to "work out adjustments" on production standards, or work rates, which have caused daily shutdowns for six weeks at the Dodge plant here and frequent shutdowns at other plants.

To establish new work schedules according to the understanding, Chrysler today closed down, for the rest of the week, four Detroit area plants employing 18,000 production workers.

Chrysler President L. L. Colbert said the company didn't know how many of its present 86,000 workers would be laid off when the new schedules go into effect across the country next Monday.

The understanding was reached at a 6½ hour meeting between Colbert's 10-member management group and UAW President Walter P. Reuther's nine-member union team.

Says Real Reason for FCC Pressure Not Told

suggested that he be hired.

A subsidiary of National Airlines was awarded Channel 10 in Miami in a hotly disputed contest with Col. A. Frank Katzentine and two other applicants.

Mack voted with the majority in the 4-2 decision that upset an examiner's recommendation that the channel be given to Katzentine as the best qualified of the four.

Mack insisted in his testimony and in his letter of resignation late Monday, which President Eisenhower quickly accepted, that he had done nothing wrong; that he had voted strictly on the merits of the case.

Baker told the subcommittee that National Airlines already has invested two million dollars in the Channel 10 station and feels it is worth "several million dollars."

"I wouldn't sell it at any price," he added. "It's not for sale."

The subcommittee decided to meet secretly this afternoon to decide whether to "invite" testimony of senators who were accused by Baker Monday of putting pressure on the FCC to award the station to Katzentine.

Mack's resignation touched off demands for a more searching exposure and cleanup not only of the FCC but of other federal regulatory agencies as well.

Study Proposals To Stimulate Sagging Economy

WASHINGTON (AP)—New administration and congressional plans shaped up today for pumping additional billions into the sagging economy.

Housing Administrator Albert M. Cole offered a $1,350,000,000 program to stimulate slum clearance and city refurbishing projects.

The Senate Housing subcommittee studied an emergency proposal by Chairman John J. Sparkman (D-Ala.), to set up a revolving fund of $1,500,000,000 for purchase of federal housing and GI home mortgages.

At the White House, meanwhile, President Eisenhower and Republican congressional leaders discussed the possibility of pouring more money into the federal highway construction program.

Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) said more money for highways was talked over during the President's weekly meeting with the GOP leaders. He said housing legislation also was discussed.

Knowland also said the administration undoubtedly will review the general economic situation when March employment figures become available in mid-April. But he said the administration is continuously checking on "economic conditions," and he indicated it would not necessarily wait for the March employment figures before considering a possible tax reduction to stimulate business.

He added, however, that the question of a tax cut did not come up at today's talk with the President.

Communists Offer To Free Kidnaped Air Travelers

SEOUL (AP)—The Communists, reversing themselves for the third time in a week, offered today to release on Thursday some or all of 27 kidnaped air travelers.

The United Nations Command accepted a Communist invitation to a meeting at which the Reds said they would release those "who wish to return"—among whom, presumably, are two Americans and two Germans.

The meeting would be a session of the Truce Secretariat, whose chief Communist member said only Monday that he had "no authority" to release the travelers, seized by gunmen who forced a Korean airliner to land in North Korea last month.

Western sources warned that the Red proposal may contain a joker. "The Communist offer may not be so simple as it seems," a high source said.

"The Communists are likely to demand that receipts for the prisoners be signed by the 'government concerned,' implying some sort of recognition of the Pong-yang (Red) government. If they do, there is a chance no agreement will be reached."

Slides of HTHS Shown to Rotary By Eltis Henson

Slides of the Harrisburg Township high school were shown to members of the Harrisburg Rotary club Monday at noon by Eltis Henson, program chairman.

The slides showed the different classrooms and the equipment that is being used to educate the students. Mr. Henson made comments about each one of the courses, explaining the requirements.

Mr. Henson said the failure of the United States to get a satellite into space before the Russians has caused many to blame the American school system. The schools should not take all the blame, he said. Schools should not only produce scientists but statesmen capable of dealing across the table with the great powers of the world. He said there is a great need to 1957... a year of record growth

The Annual Report of Texas Eastern, just released, recounts many new records for the company... expansion of its facilities... increases in sales and revenues... and diversification of its operations.

Delivery and sale of natural gas to distributors for use in millions of homes and thousands of factories in Midwestern, Appalachian and Eastern Seaboard states exceeded 548 billion cubic feet—greatest in the company's history—compared with 497 billion cubic feet in 1956.

Consolidated net income for the company and subsidiaries for 1957 amounted to $2.52 per share on 8,372,510 common shares, compared with $2.04 per share on the 7,218,100 common shares outstanding at the end of 1956.

Diversification keynoted the company's non-gas activities. In August, the company acquired La Gloria Oil and Gas Company as a wholly-owned subsidiary. La Gloria explores for and produces oil and gas, operates a large natural gas processing plant and one of the nation's most modern refineries. Texas Eastern completed the reconversion of the Little Big Inch pipeline as a common carrier of clean petroleum products, and this system, one of the nation's largest, is now in operation.

Natural gas reserves owned or controlled under contract were substantially increased during the year. At December 31, 1957, reserves were estimated by the company at 12,158,200,000,000 cubic feet, compared with 10,843,500,000,000 at the close of 1956. New sources of reserves available to Texas Eastern are being developed in Texas and Louisiana.

Production activities carried out by the company and its subsidiaries reached record levels. Total interest in gas production for 1957 amounted to 34,998,400,000 cubic feet, and in oil and products production to 3,091,727 barrels. Drilling and exploration activities were being carried on in fourteen states at year-end.

Thus, in 1957, Texas Eastern built solidly for the future... placing itself in position to serve the nation more effectively, and to assure a dependable and continuing supply of natural gas and petroleum products.

Looking at Sports

BY BILL MELTON

Tonight at 7 o'clock the Eldorado regional basketball tournament gets underway.

This will mark the first time since 1949 that a regional tournament has been played in Saline county—that year the regional was played at Eldorado and Harrisburg took the championship trophy with a victory over Marion in the finals.

A year earlier the regional was held at Harrisburg and Marion beat the host club for the title.

In fact once upon a time Harrisburg was practically a permanent tournament site. Then Eldorado built what was a big gym for the times and the tournament was shifted there occasionally.

Then both Harrisburg's and Eldorado's gyms became too small as basketball interest increased and the tournaments left here. When Harrisburg's Davenport gym was built it was large enough for a sectional, so Saline county still didn't get a regional. But the county hit the tournament jackpot this time—Eldorado has the regional and the following week Harrisburg has a sectional.

During the past ten years assignments have been shaken up considerably. Marion no longer comes this way. Schools around here have been in the same regional with Mt. Vernon three of the ten years. Throughout the decade Harrisburg and Eldorado have always gone to the same regional and only once did Carrier Mills fail to join its neighbors—in 1954 the 'Cats went to Benton and the Eagles and Bull Dogs were at Mt. Vernon. Only in three seasons did Galatia go to the same regional with the other Saline county schools as the Bears are usually go west to Frankfort or Benton. This year Galatia is at West Frankfort.

Results over the past ten years: 1948, at Harrisburg—first round: Marion 66, Eldorado 49; Carrier Mills 53, Sumner of Cairo 51 (ot); Harrisburg 80, Norris City 36; Cave-in-Rock 54, Galatia 45; semifinals: Marion 60, Carrier

Mills 44; Harrisburg 45, Cave-in-Rock 35; finals: Marion 53, Harrisburg 49;

1949, at Eldorado—first round: Marion 67, Ridgway 32; Eldorado 69, Norris City 26; Harrisburg 55, Carrier Mills 38; Cave-in-Rock 56, Galatia 42; semifinals: Harrisburg 60, Cave-in-Rock 34; Marion 42, Eldorado 37; finals: Harrisburg 43, Marion 38 (Harrisburg starters were John Vander Puyum, Gene Pavelonis, Bob Brown, Louie Bobka, Jim Catlin);

1950, at Norris City—first round: Carrier Mills 46, Norris City 43; Equality 74, Shawnee town 39; Ridgway 45, Harrisburg 43; Eldorado 64, Mills-Prairie 39; semifinals: Eldorado 66, Ridgway 41; Equality 61, Carrier Mills 57; finals: Eldorado 69, Equality 39; (Eldorado starters, Jim Beasley, George Cochran, Jack Whitlock, Bob Tierney, Bob Briddick);

1958, at Eldorado???

A lot of basketball was talked at Eldorado a day or so ago. Clyde Castle, veteran Big Ten official, stopped by to visit with a former co-worker in the Big Ten. Paul McKinnis, who said Castle told him this year's conference race was probably the tightest he has ever seen. Castle, a Purdue graduate, makes his home in Evansville and was going through Eldorado on his way home from a game assignment when he stopped to "talk over old times" with McKinnis.

Collinsville, Pekin, Quincy Notre Dame, Rock Island, Rockford East, Evanston and Thornton, all among the top 15 teams in the state, all breezed to easy victories Monday night as first round play opened at 28 regional state tournament sites.

Defending state champion Herrin meets Crab Orchard tonight as play opens at another 32 regional centers.

Collinsville clobbered Granite City, 85-46, to advance into the second round at Alton, while the host club edged Madison 68-66 in overtime in a second game.

In other top games, Ottawa coasted to an easy 89-35 victory over Ottawa Marquette at Morris, and Mount Vernon conquered Wayne City, 70-41, at Mount Carmel.

Belleville edged Cahokia, 51-48, at Belleville, while East St. Louis ambushed Belleville Cathedral, 70-55.

Pekin's Chinks routed Delavan, 83-41, at Pekin, and in a second game Morton tripped Peoria Limestone, 49-44.

Evanston's Wildkitts sent Zion Benton to the sidelines, 47-37, at Waukegan.

Thornton ran up one of the night's high scores in smashing Morgan Park Military Academy, 97-47.

However, two teams hit the 100 point mark. Pittsfield blasted Industry, 108-36, at Griggsville and Clinton trampled Le Roy, 101-48, at Clinton.

Rock Island rocked Port Byron Riverdale, 78-55, to advance into the second round at Moline. One of the night's few upsets occurred in a second game at Moline when Erie ousted East Moline by a slim 66-65 count.

Rockford East whipped Rockton Hononegh, 61-41, in its first test at Rockford.

Indiana Defeats Illinois, 96-86; Play Michigan State For Championship Saturday

CHICAGO — Everything was normal today—all tied up—in the Big Ten's race for the basketball crown as Michigan State and Indiana prepared for a championship showdown Saturday afternoon.

Indiana's hasty Hoosiers bumped Michigan State from sole possession of first place by walloping Illinois, 96-86, Monday night to set the stage for a title game on the last day of the season.

The victory was the fourth straight for the Hoosiers and their ninth in league play, matching the Spartans' state of 9-4.

The TV planners, who may have been using a crystal ball, scheduled the Hoosiers-Spartans tilt at East Lansing, Mich., long before the campaign started. Midwest viewers thus will be able to channel in on a game to decide the tightest Big Ten cage race in history and pick a conference representative for the NCAA tournament.

Spartans Still Favored
Although the Hoosiers appeared to be getting hotter as the season progressed, the Spartans figure to be at least a slight favorite because of the home court advantage. Thus far the "homers" have won almost 75 per cent of the time.

The contest will put two of the nation's most colorful players in action when the conference scoring champion Archie Dees of Indiana tips off against jumping Johnny Green of Michigan State, the league's best rebounder.

Dees, the Hoosiers' towering center, was the wheel in the win over Illinois, connecting for 33 points and nailing 16 rebounds. The output boosted his per game average to 26.7, four points better than his closest competitor.

Michigan staged a last full surge for a 72-65 victory over Wisconsin. The game was the finale for the Badgers and left them in last place with three wins against 11 defeats.

Dees, the Hoosiers' towering center, was the wheel in the win over Illinois, connecting for 33 points and nailing 16 rebounds. The output boosted his per game average to 26.7, four points better than his closest competitor.

Mrs. Gayle was solid, methodical, determined, but her years began to limit her activity, so it was Connie Ashland and Kitty Dutra who stood the brunt of it.

Occasionally the almost unbearable strain would wring tears from Kitty Dutra, and Connie would comfort her. Only once did Connie show the need of being comforted herself.

Sebastian had just brought in another armful of wood, fuel for fires never allowed to go out. Connie Ashland came into the kitchen after another pan of water for the sick room. Sebastian stood silently, watching her.

"You've got to rest," he told her gently. "You and Kitty both get a good sleep. I'll keep sick watch."

"No," Her tone was set. "No. If we slept now, we'd lose him. He needs us every second."

Hours later he went out for more wood for the hearth fire. On re-entering the house he was instantly aware of a change, over which he puzzled tiredly. Then he understood. The cough no longer sounded.

He hurried to the sick room. On their knees beside the bed were Connie Ashland and Kitty Dutra, arms about each other, their common sobbing the only sound.

So it was done with. The good fight lost, and in this case at least, the power of faith flouted and useless.

He dropped a hand on Connie Ashland's shoulder.

"They don't come any braver than you two. I only wish—"

He broke off startled at what he saw in her transfigured face as she lifted her head and looked up at him. The haggard weariness was gone and behind her tears was a new vitality, a glowing look of triumph.

"We've won, Ward!" she cried softly. "We've won!"

Sebastian looked past her then, at the figure on the bed. No dead man, this, but one with the savage fever fire fading from the drawn face, replaced by the shine of sweat.

And in some strange way, substance had returned to Phil Ashland.

Sam Lester brought the pack string back from Gallatin's, but Sebastian, though restless for the freedom and action and pressing business of the trail again, stayed close to the ranch for the better part of three weeks until sure that Phil was certain of full recovery. Then, true to his promise, he made the ride to the Gallatin ranch and sought out Major Ross Ashland.

On getting the word, Major Ashland turned away for a moment while he cleared his throat and blew his nose.

"Almost more than I could have hoped for. You really do feel the boy is going to make it?"

"After watching Connie and Kitty Dutra hold onto him and bring him back out of nowhere, I can see no chance of them letting go of him, now. Those two have been wonderful."

"They would be, of course," nodded the major. "Yet the boy is alive today mainly because of what you did. You brought him in out of the lavas and then carried him safely to your ranch. Which surely saved him, not only for the reasons Major Kress first gave, but for another he could not foresee at the time. Because a few days after the battle, some kind of epidemic hit among the wounded here—an influenza, Kress called it. Whatever it was, it took off a lot of the more seriously wounded. It was very bad."

"Bound to be. And there's more to come, Major."

"Afraid so," Major Ashland agreed. "Unless General Canby can set up some kind of peaceful settlement."

"General Canby! That's going high, isn't it?"

Major Ashland shrugged. "Quite. Latest theory out of Washington Canby is on his way in. Meanwhile, Colonel Gillen of the First Cavalry has taken over active command from Colonel Wheaton. I feel sorry for Frank Wheaton. It wasn't his idea to attempt to dig the Modocs out of that lava strong hold, though I suppose he'll be blamed because things didn't go according to plan. I doubt anyone could have done better. The lava, the fog—it all contributed."

"It was rough," Sebastian said. "Rough! A mild word. Most of our men never saw a Modoc, much less have the chance to take real offensive action. If we have to go back into those lavas again, I hate to think of the men we'll lose. Let's hope Canby brings the answer."

"He won't," said Sebastian flat-

U.S. Civil Service Celebrating Its Diamond Jubilee

By E. Bishop Hill

(Editor's Note: The following article was prepared for this newspaper by the manager of the Social Security Administration district office at Harrisburg. Mr. Hill is in his 27th year with the federal government.)

This year marks the 75th anniversary of the signing of the Civil Service Act. On January 16, 1883, President Chester Arthur signed this act into law, firmly establishing a merit system and a Civil

ly. "It's too late now for any chance at peace."

Major Ashland regarded him soberly. "But Kentippos must know that he and his people haven't a chance over the long haul?"

"Certainly. But he and his people have been lied to and deceived too often by us whites to ever believe any promise of ours again, no matter who brings it, whether it be General Canby or President Grant, for that matter."

"You make it sound pretty hopeless."

"I know the Modocs pretty well, Major. They've been pushed and hounded too far for any return. They've called on their ancient gods and made ancient medicine. They've sung their death song and are not afraid to go. But before they do, they'll take all the whites they can with them."

An orderly came with summons from Colonel Gillen and Major Ashland shook hands with Sebastian. "Thanks again, Ward, for bringing me the word."

Service Commission to administer it. The primary function of the Civil Service Commission then, as it is now, was to regulate and improve the civil service of the United States. At the time the act was signed into law it covered approximately 13,800 jobs. Today, more than 2,000,000 employees are working in more than 700,000 jobs and agencies under an equitable employment system made possible by this law.

Because the Federal Government is interested in the best qualified worker for each job, the Civil Service Commission provides for competitive examinations. These examinations are open to all citizens and appointments to the federal service are made from a register of eligible participants. To a citizen applying for a federal position, the merit system established by the Civil Service Act is a guarantee that he may qualify for a job on ability alone, and that he will not be discriminated against because of race, religion, national origin, or political affiliation. It entitles one as a federal employee to consideration for promotion and protection from dismissal on the same basis.

The citizen who is not employed in the federal service and not seeking employment is also assured, by the merit system, that the people who are selected to fill positions in federal service will be the best qualified of those available, and that they will be of high moral standards.

No longer does a change of administration mean a federal personnel mass change, with its evil of bringing the functions of government to a complete standstill

Today because of the merit system, a group of capable people carry out the essential government service programs required by the American people on a continuing basis. Thus, all citizens share a feeling of belonging to a secure and stable government.

Actually, public opinion played a big part in the passage of the Civil Service Act in 1883 after President Garfield was assassinated by a disappointed job seeker. Public opinion is also a potent force in today's government. It is important, therefore, that we as Civil Service employees exert every effort to live up to President Eisenhower's statement of 1956, when he said: "Nowhere in the world have I met more efficiency, more dedication, more readiness to put in hours without counting them on the clock, than I have among the Civil Service."

All employees of the Social Security Administration are covered by the Civil Service Act.

It all starts with Ford's new dream of a drive called Cruise-O-Matic... the newest, most versatile, most automatic of them all! Two new driving ranges let you choose your starts for the road conditions that exist. For example, in most of the driving you'll do, you can take off lively as a spring lamb if you wish. And on snow, ice or any slippery road surface, with the extra driving range you can get rolling sure, steady and silky-smooth.

Now, team this all-new automatic with Ford's new Thunderbird-powered V-8 (with up to 300 hp) and you get as much as 15% better gas mileage, too! That's because a special gas-saving rear axle ratio is used to give you "built-in" overdrive economy.

And based on factory suggested retail delivered prices, a Cruise-O-Matic Ford is priced lowest of the low-price three with comparable equipment.

So, with Thunderbird go... down-to-earth gas savings... plus Ford's traditionally low prices and high resale return... you have the best reasons in the world to make yourself a deal on a new Cruise-O-Matic Ford! Why not see your Ford Dealer... tomorrow?
